

CAN ONE PERSON MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

At the Jessica Stevens Community Foundation, we believe the answer is YES!!

Whether you devoted your life to gender equality, like Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg. Or advocated for freedom, like Mahatma Gandhi, who broke the back of British Empire, and freed India using only nonviolent protest. Or changed the law, like Martin Luther King JR., a Southern preacher, who brought the teachings of nonviolent resistance from India to the South, and led the fight to end segregation during Civil Rights era.

Our own Jessica Stevens transformed health care in the Upper Susitna Valley. She worked tirelessly for 14 years to revolutionize a single provider clinic with a shoestring budget into a federally qualified community health center housed in a new, state-of-the-art rural clinic facility.

WE BELIEVE YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE TOO!!

Donate $9.07 to the Jessica Stevens Community Foundation. The Rasmuson Foundation will match your money and becomes $18.¹⁴

Here's just a smidgeon of what $18.¹⁴ pays for in the Upper Susitna Valley:

POOF!

3 boxes of crayons equal to 192 crayons

9 pounds of food for the Food Pantry

Two Newberry Award winning children's books

10 salads for kids lunches

2+ meals for seniors

5 rides on the shuttle

For the price of two beers, earrings, a small pizza or new skirts at the thrift store, you can donate that money and make a huge difference for someone else in this place you call home. Every. Little. Bit. Counts.
